HAMAKER HEARS OF RURAL LOANS

OFFICER OF CLOVER-LEAF NATIONAL FARM LOAN ASSOCIATION RECEIVES INFORMATION ABOUT SECURING LOANS

BONANZA, March 3.—J. O. Hamaker is in receipt of a letter acknowledging the receipt of the papers in the Clover-Leaf National Farm Loan Association, which is given in full for the benefit of those who are interested.

It was dated at Washington, D. C., February 20, 1917, and reads as follows:

"Yours of recent date enclosing articles of association, etc., has been received. These we will hold until organization of your federal land bank and forward same to them. They will, as soon as possible thereafter send you all necessary blanks and instructions for completing your organization. They, no doubt, will require that you use the blanks furnished by them. Do not go to any further trouble or expense until you hear from the bank. Yours very truly, W. W. Flannagan, secretary farm loan board."

Loans will have to wait until at least the bank has the government red tape, and then the farmer can, along about August, begin to make application for a loan.

Match Endangers Hotel
BONANZA, March 3.—C. T. Darley's boy came near doing the new hotel the other day by lighting a match and throwing it in a pile of papers. The lad is about 5 years old, and the fire was discovered before it got started to do any damage.

Cotton-Seed Oil Cake Arrives
BONANZA, March 3.—Mr. Biehn's team arrived in the city this week with a load of cotton-seed oil cake for the sheep men, Vanator & Maloy. J. E. Kilgore reports having secured four tons of the same kind of feed for his band of 2,000 head of sheep. Maloy says the dogs, sheep, burros and the herders all live on "oil cake," and Dan doesn't show that he has lost any flesh.

Take Cattle to Bonanza
BONANZA, March 3.—Gilbert Harrison of the "White Ranch" was down to Poe Valley Thursday, and moved his young cattle to Bonanza to feed for a while. Hay is getting to be a legal tender in these parts, and the old Indian wampus is supplanted by rye hay now.

Stage Has Difficulties
BONANZA, March 3.—The stage line to Bly and Klamath is having some snow to deal with, and it is taking all day and the bigger half of the night to make the trip now from Bly to Klamath. Langell Valley is carrying their mail horseback.

New Safe Installed
BONANZA, March 3.—The new bank safe arrived and has been installed in the bank, notwithstanding the prophets saying that it could not be hauled this time of the year. When Walt Morris loads a thing he generally gets through.

Hardest Winter in 37 Years?
BONANZA, March 3.—J. O. Hamaker, who counts himself a pioneer, says that in the thirty-seven years of his residence in Klamath and Lake counties he has never seen as long a cold snap and as long sleighing before. Thirty-seven years ago Bonanza was in Lake county.

Dan Maloy says the people of Southern Oregon who have been referring to the winter of 1889-90 as the hard winter, will now have a new calendar, and will date it 1916-17.

SAWMILL TO RUN NIGHT AND DAY

KLAMATH MANUFACTURING COMPANY'S MILL STARTS AS SOON AS WEATHER PERMITS—CUT FROM 125,000 TO 135,000 DAILY

SHIPPINGTON, March 3.—There is no truth in the report that the Klamath Manufacturing company's box factory will shut down for a week or two. They shut down Thursday afternoon to take stock for the first of the month.

They have installed a new diamond edge in the sawmill, and intend to start operations this month, as soon as the lake opens up and weather permits. They will run night and day from the start, and the output will be 125,000 or 135,000 feet a day.

The Klamath Manufacturing company is running the sawmill from their box factory out in the swamp to make room for their lumber yards for this year.

Shippington Personal
SHIPPINGTON, March 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hedler of Shippington were in Klamath Falls Thursday on business.

A. B. Brearcliff, who got one of his fingers cut off in the box factory at Shippington, is getting along nicely. George Phenagor of Dorris, Calif., is visiting his brother Tom, in Shippington.

Everett Finnell returned this week from San Diego, Calif., where he has been spending the winter for his health. Mrs. Walter Helfel returned from the Point, where she has been for a week taking care of her mother, Mrs. Lord, who has been ill.

Shippington Society
SHIPPINGTON, March 3.—The Athen Club was entertained Thursday by Mrs. T. Hartsell. Those present were Mrs. H. D. Harlan, Mrs. H. Hill, Mrs. Geo. Nebrham, Mrs. H. Putnam, Mrs. E. H. Yancey, Mrs. J. Setzer, Mrs. F. V. Finnell, Mrs. A. Brearcliff and Mrs. B. R. Yancey. Miss Daisy Hayden of Klamath Falls was a visitor to the club. Refreshments were served by the hostess, and the afternoon was spent in needlework.

Bonanza Personal

BONANZA, March 3.—Doc Mitchell, Jim Grimes and a stranger were in the city Wednesday trying to purchase cattle. Luke Walker was a passenger on the stage Wednesday, returning from the Bly country, where he had been purchasing cattle.

C. T. Darley and Will Irwin journeyed to the Falls this week.

BRITONS FIGHT OR GO TO JAIL

CELLS IN OLD DARTMOOR PRISON NOW AWAIT CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS AND OTHERS WHO REFUSE TO FIGHT FOR KING

LONDON, March 3.—Cells in Dartmoor prison today await conscientious objectors and others who refuse to fight for king and country from now on. The government heretofore has dealt leniently with the objectors, but after today they must either fight or be locked up.

Dartmoor is the convict prison built in 1806 to hold French prisoners. Two thousand American seamen who refused to serve as British sailors in the war of 1812 against their own country, were confined there, too.

Jeremiah Lynch of Irish rebellion notoriety, was sentenced to ten years there after the Sinn Fein uprising.
